

Electrical workshop

Room no.: 126

Electrical workshop aims to provide participants with a deep understanding of electrical circuits and how they function in common household appliances. Through a series of experiments, participants will learn about the components, wiring, and functioning of circuits in a tubelight, mixer grinder, and electric iron. The workshop will focus on practical knowledge, safety precautions necessary for working with electrical systems.